

University of Bolton

Teaching Intensive, Research Informed

'Gain Essential Skills for the Future'

Biological Sciences

Monday 30th October 2017

Monday 30th
October 2017

Queens
Specialist
Building

Bolton
BL4 7DX

Teaching Intensive, Research Informed

Gain Essential Skills for the Future'

STUDENT ARRIVAL

Second Floor Foyer

09:30 - 09:50 Refreshments and Networking.

MORNING KEYNOTE ADDRESSES

Second Floor Foyer

10:00 - 10:10 Anna Fitzpatrick. Head of School of Sport and Biological Sciences, The University of Bolton.
Welcome address.

10:10 - 11:00 Max Bodmer. Doctoral Researcher, Operation Wallacea.
Restoration of the Long-spined Sea Urchin, Diadema antillarum, to Caribbean Coral Reefs.

11:00 - 11:50 Sarah Thornber PhD. Clinical Trial Coordinator, Birmingham Clinical Trials Unit (BCTU), University of Birmingham Medical School.
Clinical Trials and Medical Research.

12:00 Lunch Break.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Second Floor Foyer

13:00 - 13:50 Rebecca Russell. Careers and Employability Advisor, The University of Bolton.
Career Opportunities for Life Sciences Graduates.

13:50 - 14:10 Mid-afternoon Refreshment Break.

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

Second Floor Foyer

14:10 - 14:50 Topic: Career Planning - Can a Career Ever be Planned?

Dorcas Ishaya. Undergraduate Student, School of Sport and Biological Sciences, The University of Bolton.

Courtney Rothwell-Wild. Undergraduate Student, School of Sport and Biological Sciences, The University of Bolton.

Abusadat Abdullah. Undergraduate Student, School of Sport and Biological Sciences, The University of Bolton.

Moderator: Ann Kolodziejski PhD.

14:50 - 15:00 Closing Remarks.
